HUERTA WILTS AND QUICKLY SENDS ENVOY BID TO RETURN

LIND TO RETURN TO MEXICO CITY

Decision Assures the Reopening of Negotiations.

OFFICIALS FEEL ENCOURAGED

Supplementary Notes Exchanged Between the American Envoy and the Mexican Foreign Minister Show, However, That the United States and Mexican Governments Are Still Deadlocked On Fundamentals.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Publication of the supplementary notes exchanged by John Lind and Foreign Minister Gamboa showed that the United States and the Mexican government are still deadlocked on fundamentals of the mediation program. Concessions, however, have been made both by the Huerta and Wilson administrations, and considerable encouragement is felt in Washington for the ultimate success of the peaceful efforts by the United States.

At least one important result has already been obtained from the new developments. The latest exchange of notes between Lind and Gamboa has assured the reopening of negotiations, and John Lind, the president's special envoy, will leave Vera Cruz and return to Mexico City. The Washington administration had authorized him to do this "if in his discretion it seemed advisable."

Meanwhile, it was indicated, arrangements will go steadily forward for the enforcement of embargo on shipments of arms into Mexico and for the transportation of Americans from the southern republic. The new policy proclaimed by the president in his address to congress will be carried out in every detail until some vital change is wrought in the Mexican situation.

The most surprising development in this second exchange of notes between Foreign Minister Gamboa and Special Envoy Lind was the offer on the part of this government to extend aid to the Huerta regime in the matter of obtaining a loan, provided Huerta should accept the American peace proposals. Lind gave assurances, in fact, that this government, in the event of Mexico acting favorably, would inform American bankers that it would look with favor upon an immediate loan to Mexico. This proposal was rejected by the Mexican government.

The deadlock between the United States and Mexico over the mediation proposals seems to have narrowed itself down now to the question whether or not President Huerta will give assurances that he will not be a candidate for re-election in the constitutional election to be held in October. President Wilson insists upon such assurances, and the Mexican executive appears to be equally determined not to give them.

Americans in Mexico are heeding President Wilson's warning to get out and state department officials believe that two weeks hence there hardly be 1,000 of them left in the troubled republic. Although many had refused to consider leaving before the word came of the president's urgent advice, hundreds have been starting for home or abroad daily during the last three weeks, and it is estimated that nearly 10,000, or about as many as are still in Mexico, have departed.

Several Declare Their Intention of Seeking Redress Through Civil and Criminal Actions, While One Threatens to Use His Fist—Assembly Adjourns to the Eve of the Sulzer Trial.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 29.—Formal recognition of Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn as acting governor, pending the issue of the impeachment proceedings against Governor Sulzer, was completed by the legislature when the senate accepted three messages sent in by Mr. Glynn. The legislature later adjourned to Sept. 17, the day before the impeachment court convenes.

Proceedings in both houses were characterized by sharp denunciation of Governor Sulzer's close friend, Judge Lynn J. Arnold, who is seeking to procure indictments for felony against Senator Robert F. Wagner, majority leader; Senator James J. Frawley, chairman of the committee which laid the foundations for the impeachment, and Speaker Alfred E. Smith and Majority Leader Aaron J. Levy of the assembly.

Levy was charged by Judge Arnold, through Arnold's newspaper, with receiving a $5,000 bribe from Former State Engineer Skene for influencing legislation. Senator Frawley was charged with bribery and other offenses, while Senator Wagner and Speaker Smith were accused of perjury in falsely certifying to a quorum. The men impugned declared their intention of seeking redress through civil and criminal actions.

DIFFERENCES STIR DEMMIES WHO NOW SEEK AMENDMENTS

SEEK HIGHER TAX ON BIG INCOMES

Democratic Senators Would Amend House Provision.

CAUCUS WILL LIKELY BE HELD

Majority Leaders Promise to Give Serious Consideration to the Expediency of Increasing the Rate On Incomes Above Twenty Thousand. Progressive Republicans Suffer a Third Setback.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Democratic differences in the senate over the income tax have probably made it necessary for the Democratic senators to hold a caucus to compose differences and revise the amendment to meet objections.

The trouble arose over the defeat of an amendment offered by Senator LaFollette. This amendment proposed that a higher tax be imposed on the larger incomes than is carried by the bill and that a lower one be fixed for the smaller incomes. The debate on this feature of the bill, led by the progressive Republicans Wednesday, made such an impression on the Democratic side that when the bill was taken up again it was found that a considerable insurgent movement had started to amend the bill. It was said that 27 out of 30 Democrats in the senate were demanding that the tax on the larger incomes be increased.

Before the rollcall came on Senator LaFollette's amendment the Democratic leaders had practically agreed that the tax on incomes of more than $100,000 shall be 5 per cent, with an increasing rate that will amount to 10 per cent on half a million dollars. The present rate carried by the bill on all incomes over $100,000 is but 3 per cent. The Democratic leaders have also promised to give serious consideration to the expediency of increasing the rate on incomes above $20,000.

LaFollette's Amendment.
Senator LaFollette's amendment which proposed a rate starting at 1 per cent on incomes of $10,000 and amounting to 10 per cent on incomes of $100,000, was defeated by a vote of 43 to 17. It was the third setback for the progressive Republicans, who have been making a desperate fight to increase the rate of taxation on the larger incomes.

Senator Vardaman of Mississippi broke from his Democratic colleagues and voted for Senator LaFollette's amendment. Senators Reed, Ashurst and Thompson stated that they had been assured that the Democratic leaders would change the amendment and on such assurance they would vote against the LaFollette amendment. Senator Williams declared that no one was authorized to give assurances to Democratic senators that the income tax amendment would be modified in the way suggested, but later he admitted that the matter would be reconsidered.

Twelve regular Republicans voted with the Democrats against the LaFollette amendment, as they did Wednesday on similar amendments. After Senator LaFollette's amendment had been disposed of, Senator Bristow of Kansas proposed another, which came within six votes of being adopted and which commanded all of the Republican support. The vote was 36 to 30. Senator Bristow's amendment proposed a graduated increase of half of 1 per cent on each $10,000 increase of income up to $100,000.

HOUSE CAUCUS ADOPTS THE CURRENCY BILL

Another Victory Recorded For President Wilson.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Another victory for President Wilson was recorded when the caucus of the house Democrats adopted the administration banking and currency bill by a vote of 160 to 9. The final vote amounted to a complete rout of the "insurgents," who had succeeded in holding the bill in caucus for nearly three weeks.

Debate on the bill will be begun in the house on or about Sept. 8, according to a statement made by Chairman Glass of the committee on banking and currency. Mr. Glass believes that the measure will be passed by the house before Sept. 20.

A few of the insurgents, notably Representatives Calloway of Texas and Neely of Kansas, continued the fight until the last minute. They, with seven others, reserved the right to offer certain amendments in the house. On the bill as a whole, however, all Democrats are committed to it, as the caucus passed a resolution binding all members of the party to the measure.

DAMAGING ADMISSION

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—The most important development in the white slave trial was the evidence that Drew Caminetti wrote out his resignation as clerk in the state board of control the night he left Sacramento for Reno and that he instructed the board's secretary to send the balance of salary due him to the bank in Sacramento, on which he had drawn checks that day. This testimony was offered to prove that Caminetti had decided to desert his wife.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 29.—Harry K. PRIME MINISTER ROLLED IN DUST BY SUFFRAGETTS

MILITANTS ATTACK PREMIER ASQUITH

Dragged Over the Ground By Two Women Who Are Jailed.

Edin., Scotland, Aug. 29.—The British prime minister was the object of a personal attack by suffragets. While he was going with his daughter two stalwart suffragets, who had quietly come up to the green, sprang at him suddenly. They knocked off his hat, grabbed him by the clothing and dragged him some distance over the ground.

The prime minister bore his rough treatment complacently while they imparted to him their opinion that he was a scoundrel and a past master in the arts of Ananias.

Miss Asquith, who was a little distance off when the suffragets pounced on her father, ran to his assistance and proceeded to apply militant methods to the militants. The battle waged for only a few moments, when two detectives rushed up and, with difficulty, released Mr. Asquith from the clutches of the suffragets, who were placed under arrest.

VIOLENT ELECTRICAL STORMS SWEEP OVER CENTRAL FAYETTE AND LARGE BARN ARE BURNED

Early Morning Hours Broken by Electrical Bombardment Which Terrifies Citizens North and West of This City—W. E. Rowe and A. C. Daniels Suffer Heavy Loss When Lightning Fires Barns.

A series of terrific electrical storms swept over central Fayette from west to east between 1:30 and 3:00 o'clock Friday morning, doing a great amount of damage, but relieving the intense humidity which had prevailed for some time previous to the storms.

In this city very little rain fell and the lightning did no damage, but north, east and west of the city one thunderbolt after the other crashed to the earth, shattering trees, fence posts, telephone poles, burning barns and killing live stock.

The storms arose with unusual rapidity and were accompanied by some hail and the rain in many sections was heavy.

Three or four buildings were destroyed in this and Greene county. Two large barns were struck and burned to the ground in western Fayette.

One of the barns was an unusually large one owned by A. C. Daniels, who resides between West Lancaster and Octa. The building was burned to the ground, together with everything it contained, which included three head of cattle, a large amount of hay and grain, farm machinery and the like. The insurance will not be sufficient to cover the loss.

Mr. Daniels moved to this county from Illinois a few years ago and the barn destroyed was a comparatively new one.

W. E. Rowe, residing north of Glendon, lost a barn during the storm. A bolt of lightning struck it, igniting the hay in the loft, and within a few minutes the building was enveloped in flames. The structure was 30 by 40 feet and full of hay. Mr. Rowe also lost heavily in farm machinery and other valuable property in the barn.

PARRETT FAMILY HOLDS REUNION

Annual Event Held Yesterday Was One of Exceptional Pleasure With Large Number of One of Fayette's Oldest Families in Attendance—One Hundredth Anniversary of Settling in This County Will be Celebrated Next Year.

The annual Parrett reunion, bringing together as it does one of the largest and oldest families of this section of the state, was held Thursday at Lyndon. A hundred and fifty representatives of the Parrett family gathered from all over this part of the country and the reunion was notably one of the most successful and altogether enjoyable ever held.

A feature of the day was the splendid chicken dinner, with every known delicacy to go with the big platters of golden brown chicken.

After the dinner the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, P. J. Parrett, of Lyndon, residing on the original Parrett homestead; vice-president, E. H. King, Good Hope; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Frank Baird, Fruitdale; executive committee, Will Parrett, Henry Cline, Sherman Parrett, Lyndon; Mrs. Laura York, Good Hope; Mrs. Ed Klever, Bloomington; Mr. Frank L. Parrett, Washington.

Next year the hundredth anniversary of the Parrett family will be celebrated and the greatest time in the history of the clan is expected.

In 1814 the great grand-parents of the Parretts, Frederick and Barbara Parrett, came from Virginia to locate in Ross county, a mile from Lyndon, on the old Parrett homestead, now the home of P. J. Parrett.

It is on this homestead farm that the big reunion will be held and that every Parrett who can possibly do so will join in the celebration is a foregone conclusion.

Mr. and Mrs. Matheson (nee Florence Parrett) were in from Indiana for Thursday's reunion.

GREENFIELD PEEVED AT D. T. & I. SERVICE

Regarding the shipping facilities of the D. T. & I. the Greenfield Journal says:

The service being given by the D. T. & I. R. R. in this part of the state is the limit. Freight that is loaded at Springfield reaches Greenfield from a week to two weeks later. It is not the fault of the employees of the road because they are doing everything possible to accommodate the patrons, but the physical condition of the road has reached a point where the state authorities ought to take a hand. As long as the road makes a bluff at carrying freight it will be depended upon. Live stock dealers all along the line are kicking about the poor service they get and the thousands of dollars they lose every year. Something ought to be done by the state authorities at once.

In Social Circles

An informal tea was given by Mrs. Earl Barnett and Miss Myrtle McCoy Thursday afternoon, in compliment to Miss McCoy's guests, Mrs. Harry Teeters, Mrs. Dan Cawley, of Marietta; Miss Agnes Monroe, of Muncie, Ind.; Miss Mabel Arbuckle, of Columbus.

Thirty of the younger matrons and girls found the affair of distinctive charm and pleasure, and thoroughly enjoyed meeting the honor guests.

Miss Monroe, who has so often delighted Washington audiences with her musical genius, was induced to play several exquisite piano solos and Miss Stella Bazole, of Williamsport, added a group of beautiful songs. Brilliant piano solos were also contributed by Mrs. H. L. Stitt and the tea took on the semblance of a choice concert.

The tea room was very inviting, with its table artistically decorated in pink and white asters and maiden's hair fern. A large basket of the asters graced the center and smaller baskets were at the corners.

Assisting in the hospitalities were Mrs. Horace Ireland, Miss Etta Junk, Miss Edith Hamm and Miss Louise Hershey. Mrs. Robert Barnes, of Columbus; Mrs. Troy Junk, of Oxford and Miss Bazole were out-of-town guests.

Miss Dorothy Rogers entertained the girls of the J. S. club with a jolly picnic supper Thursday night in honor of Miss Ruth Hagler. The picture supper was spread on the beautiful lawn of the Gardner homestead, beneath a wide-spreading bough and having decorations of wild flowers and a big center basket of fruit.

Seated with the young hostess and guest of honor were Misses Ruth Reid, Edith Worthington, Gladys Fenner, Gretchen Willis, Kathleen Davis, Gladys Jessen, Springfield, and Mary Gwinn, Columbus.

Miss Gladys Fenner delightfully entertained the J. S. club together with Miss Gladys Jessen, of Springfield, Miss Mary Gwinn, of Columbus, and Miss Ruth Hagler, Thursday afternoon.

After a game of "Rock" dainty refreshments were served.

AIR COMPRESSOR GIVES WAY AND WATER SUPPLY IS SHORT TODAY

Some time during the night the air compressor at the Washington Water Works Pumping station gave way, causing the supply of water to be reduced one half or more throughout the day, and causing a very serious situation to arise in the low water pressure.

It was necessary to wire for repairs and they are expected this evening. If they arrive the regular water supply will be pumped into the mains as usual, but if they do not arrive until later the water pressure will continue weak owing to the small volume forced into the city mains. Citizens are cautioned to husband the supply as much as possible until normal conditions are resumed.

BRAVEST OF CHICAGO'S FORCE

Patrolman McDermott Wins Harrison and Tree Medal.

Chicago.—Patrolman James M. McDermott was officially declared the bravest of the force when the civil service commission awarded him the Harrison and Tree medal for 1912. This is the highest honor that can be given to a policeman by the city.

McDermott arrested a murderer who had crawled beneath a house and threatened to shoot any one who came after him. The policeman pried off some boards at the bottom of the building and squeezed his way in the darkness to where the criminal lay. As he advanced, the man twice pulled the trigger of his revolver, but the cartridges failed to explode. The mechanism of the weapon had become clogged by dirt. The commission decided that this was the bravest deed of the year.

Good Men Wanted

(From Springfield Sun.)

The citizens of Springfield have heeded the knocking of opportunity and have swung open the door of progress for the city. The decisive vote in favor of the new city charter indicates that the people have awakened to the call of the twentieth century and that they demand equal opportunities for all with special privileges for none.

There can be no doubt of the temper of the people. They have revolted against the misrule of Springfield extending over a score of years. They have sickened of the buying and selling of men in the open market of politics. They are weary of the plundering of the city treasury by favored political henchmen and of the sight of lawbreakers plying their trades within the sight of uniformed policemen. They are tired of seeing reforms halted, improvements denied and progress blocked because they would injure the interests of political gangsters.

The vote of the election proves beyond the shadow of a doubt that the time has come to sweep the bosses into the street. Every man who has been affiliated with the corrupt gangs who have misruled the city for so many years should be turned out of office. The good in the old system should be retained, but every portion of the bad should be eliminated. Those who have served the whole people and have not heeded the dictates of the bosses, if there be any such, should be rewarded for their faithfulness, but those about whom there clusters the slightest suspicion of incompetency, inefficiency or corruption should be discharged.

Good men are needed to handle the new charter and to put its provisions into execution. The people of Springfield are awake at last to the necessity of putting good men into office and they should remain awake through the years to come. No matter what the form of government may be, if the people sleep upon their rights, the robbers will enter and the thieves will steal away the privileges which belong to every man as a member of society.

A close watch should be kept upon the candidates for the new city commission. With them rests the complete emancipation of the people from gang rule and the opportunity is at hand to lift Springfield out of the slough of years of misrule and place her in the front rank of cities where honesty, efficiency and economy combine to bring happiness and prosperity to the citizens. Good men must be chosen to fill the positions under the new charter. Men are needed who have the courage of their convictions, men who will dare to purge the police department of the officers who have made it the disgrace of Springfield and who will sweep away the political henchmen who have been fattening upon city contracts.

If the people remain awake, the star of the plunderbund has set. With the new charter giving honest men an opportunity to clean up municipal affairs, to oust inefficiency and to operate the city upon business principles, Springfield is entering upon a new era of prosperity and progress. Upon the personnel of the new commissioners rests the future of Springfield.

The victory is half won and it remains for the voters of Springfield to make the reformation doubly sure by picking the best possible men to fill the newly created offices of city commissioners.

Education Has Taught All Labor to Demand Its Fair Share

By GEORGE W. PERKINS, Financier and Advocate of Profit Sharing System

THE problem of the worker's fair share goes HAND IN HAND WITH THE GOVERNMENTAL QUESTIONS that are up for solution today, for it, too, is the product of our educational system. For instance, I firmly believe that we NEVER CAN SETTLE THE WAGE QUESTION, the question of compensation for labor performed or settle the strike question by MERELY RAISING WAGES FROM TIME TO TIME.

SINCE EDUCATION HAS GROWN WE HAVE BEFORE US A CONSTANT DEMAND FOR INCREASE IN WAGES BECAUSE THE LABORING MAN FEELS THAT HIS WAGE, WHATEVER IT MAY BE, WHETHER IT BE $2 OR $5, IS NOT HIS FAIR PROPORTION OF THE EARNINGS OF THE BUSINESS IN WHICH HE IS ENGAGED. HE SEES THE BUSINESS FLOURISHING; HE SEES ALSO BY MANY OUTWARD SIGNS THAT THE MEN WHO OWN THE BUSINESS ARE LIVING BETTER EACH YEAR AND GETTING RICHER EACH YEAR, AND WHEN HE STRIKES IT IS FOR WHAT HE REGARDS AS A FAIRER PROPORTION OF THE EARNINGS.

A HIGHER ORDER OF INTELLIGENCE is at work on this problem. No arbitrary dollar and cent increase will ever satisfy him. He is STRIKING FOR A PRINCIPLE that he has thought out and reasoned out. Believing these conditions to be fundamental, I was led a number of years ago to the conclusion that we must adopt PROFIT SHARING in connection with wages as a matter of getting at the worker's fair share.

Poetry For Today

AUGUST ORIENTRY.

Somehow these August dawns, with splendors graced,
Before which such triumphant ardors run,
Bring back great Memnon crying o'er the waste,
And all the fates of buried Babylon!

Somehow these August noons that brood and blaze,
Stilling the lyric murmur of the rills,
Bring back the palpitating golden haze
Above the silence of the Syrian hills!

Somehow these August sunsets, rich with flame,
Where vivid saffron with vermilion vies,
Bring back, deep-set within its desert frame,
The radiant day-fall in Egyptian skies!

Somehow these August midnights, sown with stars,
Swept by the moon-barque with its silver sail,
Bring back the bloom of drowsy nuptials,
And the rapt passion of the nightingale!—Selected.

BABY'S HANDS TIED.

Mother Tells How Saxo Salve Conquered Eczema.

"Last fall we noticed small round and red spots coming on baby's hands. The skin was very dry and she kept scratching them until they would bleed. We lost a good deal of sleep with her. Finally we took her to the doctor and he treated her several weeks, but it kept spreading until we had to keep her little hands tied and dress and bandage them several times a day they were so sore, and we used everything we could hear of for eczema. Finally our druggist told us about Saxo Salve. We tried it and one and a half tubes has entirely cured her. Her little hands are smooth and not even scarred, and we are so glad to tell others what Saxo Salve has done for us. Mrs. Mort Stephenson, Lebanon, Ind."

You cannot do better than to try Saxo Salve for eczema, tetter, ringworm, or any skin affection—we cheerfully give back your money if it does not help you. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

INTERESTING BITS OF NEWS

(By John E. M. Kerr.)

The rank and file of Mexicans lack the political education necessary to maintain a Republican form of government, declared Joseph Wheelock, an attorney of St. Louis, who has made several trips to Mexico City and studied the people. They are a lot of Indians and half-breeds, for the most part, who have no education, no property and who know not what to do with a regular government. That is the reason they are ready to follow any one who sets himself up as a leader, with consequent internal strife.

A Texas farmer adopting the theory that the bi-product is the profit-maker, bought a cider press for $30 and used it in making cider from the culls from his 15-acre apple orchard. One year he made 600 gallons of sweet cider and some vinegar which he sold for $425. The vinegar obtained a local reputation and now sells for $1.00 per gallon.

Fifty days for a trip around the world is declared by Mears, the man who smashed the globe-girdler's record down to 35 days, sufficient for a quick sight-seer. This would give the tripper 2 days for sightseeing in London, 2 in Paris, 2 in Berlin and 2 in St. Petersburg. He would spend 6 days in Japan. "And this," says Mr. Mears, "shows what I think of Japan."

The canneries of British Columbia report a lean year for the season just closing, the rockys salmon pack totaling only 180,000 cases. The average pack for 16 years has been 750,000 cases. Puget sound canners, however, report a big season. The Frazer river pack amounts to 500,000 cases this year against a million in 1911.

Postmasters are instructed by the Washington authorities to direct officials in the registry division to inspect all registered packages and letters to see that they are so wrapped or enveloped that they will safely carry in the mails. The department suggests that patrons be advised to wrap coins or bulky currency in cloth-lined paper or canvas sacks, under a paper wrapper strong enough to protect the enclosure. Also to the regulation against placing loose coins in the mail boxes in payment for stamps. Coins must be wrapped in paper so the carriers can easily pick it up.

Some feats of extraordinary rapid construction have been performed in the history of American railroads, but the Pennsylvania surpasses them all in the rebuilding of over a mile of 2 track railroad bridge across Newark bay, which was burned. The fire was still in progress when the reconstruction was decided on and the plans gotten ready. Orders were given for 14 pile drivers, 13 marine derricks, 21 scows, 12 tugs, 6 catamarans or rafts, 5 air compressors, 3 water boats, 3 million feet of lumber and the assembling of 1500 men. The 5663 feet including a 200-foot draw bridge was completed in 12 days.

A GLIMPSE BACK THROUGH YEARS

(John E. M. Kerr.)

July 6, 1871.

The name of Hon. M. J. Williams, we notice has been mentioned in our exchanges, in connection as a candidate to succeed Judge Dickey. Other gentlemen of our place have also been named. Any one of them would make a good judge. Whether on the nomination day, Fayette presents a Williams, a Gardner or a Maynard, either one would fill the judicial position with ability and with honor. They are gentlemen of a high order of legal attainments, industrious habits and commendable moral standing, and eminently worthy of any position the people may choose to assign them.

The Pioneers' reunion on the 4th was well attended. The meeting was addressed by Col. S. F. Kerr, of this place and Col. S. N. Yeoman. Col. Yeoman was unexpectedly called out. Consequently had no time to prepare for speech making. Col. Kerr gave an interesting history of the early settlements of this county. He had been a resident here since 1811, and was familiar with the early history.

U. S. GOLF TITLE IS IN DANGER

Big Array of European Stars In Meet at Brookline, Mass.

STRONG TALENT IS NAMED.

Massy and Teller of France, Together With England's Cracks, Ray and Vardon, to Try For Trophy—Americans Will Have Their Hands Full.

The national open golf championship is going to be placed in serious jeopardy at Brookline, Mass. In September.

Now that Arnaud Massy and Louis Teller of France have decided to come over for the tournament, in addition to the Englishmen, Vardon, Ray and Reid, who are here, the American professionals will be called upon to meet the most formidable array of invaders that has ever turned up at this meeting.

Our professionals will have to play better than they have done in England and France recently to prevent the title going out of the country the way it did in 1900.

Of the two Frenchmen, Massy is the better known. This exceedingly fine golfer first won recognition in the international field of golf by capturing the British open at Hoylake in 1907.

In 1911 he tied with Harry Vardon for the British title at Sandwich, only to lose in the playoff. In his own country he won the open in 1906 and 1907 and was second in 1908. Three years ago he took a trip over the western frontier and returned with the Belgian open.

Some idea of Massy's caliber can be gathered from his recent record. In the international match with America he defeated Tom McNamara, 2 and 1, and he and Teller won in the four ball from J. J. McDermott and McNamara, 3 and 2. Massy is a particularly fine match player and shines, as a rule, under adverse weather conditions.

Teller's record is less brilliant than that of Massy. In this year's cham-

Johnson Allowed Only Three Hits In Eleven Innings, but Lost Out.

Boston, Aug. 29.—Visions of a new American league record for successive games won by pitchers were blighted when Walter Johnson, pitching for Washington, went down to defeat before Ray Collins and the Boston Red Sox in an 11-inning pitchers' battle. Johnson allowed Boston but three singles, struck out 10 men and did not give a pass. Collins was found for six hits, three of them doubles, struck out only one and gave a base on balls. Johnson had been credited with 14 straight games up to yesterday. Score:

French international match at La Boule, with a margin of 6 and 4. In the French open at the same place last year Teller finished third, with a total of 291, Gassiat winning the title with 289 and Harry Vardon being second with 290.

Wilfrid Reid's claim to fame rests on the fact that he has never lost an international match in the play between England and Scotland.

Undoubtedly the Americans will meet most of their trouble when they are called upon to meet Vardon and Ray. This year in the British open Ray finished second and Vardon tied for third to J. H. Taylor, the winner. Vardon won the U. S. G. A. professional championship in 1900 at Wheaton, Ill.

When the Brooklyn went to bat in the twelfth inning of a recent game with Pittsburgh Manager Clarke, who had been warned to keep quiet on the bench, began to taunt Umpire O'Day.

"You're as good an umpire as you were a manager last year. You're a back number!" he shouted.

O'Day glared at the Pirate chief a moment, then waved him to the bench, exclaiming hotly: "If you don't keep quiet you won't be a manager for the rest of the day and maybe longer!"

Clarke quickly retired and remained silent until the next inning, when he addressed O'Day in the sweetest possible manner. The umpire turned his back.

O'DAY HAS LAST SAY AS PERSONALITIES FLY.

Check Fighter Making Good.

Ar Chung, a young Chinese lightweight boxer of Boston, made Pat McCarthy, a Gotham boxer, quit in the sixth round of a scheduled ten round bout recently in New York. Ar Chung is said to be the first Chinese boxer to appear in a New York ring.

WHEN M'LEAN HAD ONE SLIPPED OVER ON HIM.

They are telling of a break made by Larry McLean three years ago. It was a game at the Cincinnati Reds park against Pittsburgh. McLean was catching, Fred Clarke on second and Wagner at bat. A down-dropping pitch shot through Larry's glove and fell between his capacious feet. As he looked around for the ball Wagner pointed with his bat to the far away bench and said, "It rolled over there."

Solemnly and in all innocence, Larry marched over to the bench looking for the ball, while Clarke trotted to third, and the stands grew vocal with loud personal accusation. The ball player who will believe what a member of the other team says to him is too innocent to be trusted by himself and without a guardian.

INTERNATIONAL CIRCUIT.

Canada, United States and Mexican Horse Racing Promoters in Combine.

Through the efforts of the British Columbia Thoroughbred association plans are being matured toward the establishment of a true international circuit for horse racing next season.

The scheme proposes to send the runners to five tracks. Vancouver and Victoria for the Canadian end, Denver, Colo., and Butte, Mont., for the United States and bullet scarred Juarez for Mexico.

Racing will begin at the Juarez track about April and move northward for a meeting at each track, winding up with a return to Mexican territory.

PITCHER GETS EVEN WITH ERRING MATES.

Pitcher Comstock of Indianapolis achieved a singular form of revenge in a double header with Minneapolis at Indianapolis recently. After losing the first game by a score of 4 to 1 because his teammates made four costly errors behind him Comstock returned to his post in the second contest and beat the Millers by a score of 11 to 1.

Comstock allowed ten hits in eight innings, four being distributed through the last game. Comstock's sole motive for pitching the second game was to prove that it was not his fault the first game was lost; so he got square.

Thaw's Chief Counsel and Minister of the Interior Before Whom Final Appeal For Delay May Be Laid.

Photos copyright, 1913, by American Press Association.

When Harry K. Thaw was caught in Canada he secured the services of several noted Canadian lawyers, with J. H. Greenfields as chief counsel. There was no assurance, however, that Thaw would not change his mind at any moment in regard to his lawyers, for he wanted it understood that he was directing their efforts to gain his freedom. A photograph of Mr. Greenfields is shown on the left. The other figure in the Thaw case here shown is J. C. Black, minister of the interior, before whom Thaw planned to take his case in case the immigration board decided to deport him as an undesirable alien.

CASHIER FEARS DEPOSITORS

Admits Embezzling More Than $100,000 of the Bank's Funds.

Pontiac, Mich., Aug. 29.—Ralph Jossman, cashier of the closed Jossman State bank at Clarkston, who was locked up in the county jail here after admitting that he had embezzled from $80,000 to $140,000 of the bank's funds, is in mortal fear that the depositors of the wrecked bank will storm the jail and do him bodily harm. He asked Sheriff Oliver if he could be locked in a private room on the top floor of the jail. The sheriff consented. Jossman says the stolen money was invested in Mexican lands, property in Clarkston and the Michigan Steam Motor company of Pontiac. It is understood that the arrest will not be made until the department decides the most serious offense he can be charged with.

LIFE PAYS PENALTY

BITTEN BY PET CAT

Mother and Son Believed Victims of Hydrophobia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Stricken suddenly with a mysterious illness, John Miller, 11, died in the Episcopal hospital. Death is believed to have been due to hydrophobia, developing as a result of a cat bite received six weeks ago by the boy and his mother. The death is the second in the family, his mother having died Aug. 10. The cat is said by Dr. George A. MacEree, who treated both the mother and her son before their deaths, to have been a family pet for years. On the day the two were bitten the animal had shown signs of restiveness. Mr. Miller choked the cat to death.

against him were construed as a threat to chastise his accuser. He said: "As to Mr. Arnold, I will try to provide for him a little later. I am going to apply to him the remedy that should be applied to all men of his type. It is not to bring him before a magistrate—but something else. Thank God, I am able to apply that to him—and I will."

Senator Frawley is of powerful physique and author of the boxing bill. The plans of the Democratic leaders to put through the several financial measures recommended by Acting Governor Glynn failed through inability to secure together the three-fifths attendance of each house necessary to pass appropriation bills.

NOT BADLY DAMAGED

Big Liner Imperator Will Sail Tomorrow as Scheduled.

New York, Aug. 29.—The world's biggest liner, the Imperator, which was afire for over four hours with a loss that may reach $50,000, will sail tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock as scheduled, and the thousands aboard her will hardly see a trace of the fire.

A battalion of cleaners and painters spent the day on the white woodwork, windows and floor of the second cabin, which were scorched and blistered. By noon today the thousands of tons of water that drowned the fire and gave the giant vessel a heavy list was out of her. By night the 50,000 pounds of fresh meat and other necessary supplies will be in the blackened hold. Second Officer Karl Gobrecht lost his life fighting the fire single-handed.

turn to the capital at once. This action is due to the latest note from Senor Gamboa, the Mexican minister of foreign affairs. This note is considered here to mean that the Mexican government is willing to do all in its power to come to a cordial understanding with the United States, if such a thing is possible. It will doubtless take some time for both sides to get together and present their ideas.

William Bayard Hale, the personal representative of President Wilson, will leave for Washington as soon as possible to present certain details to President Wilson there. There is great satisfaction among the Lind party over the latest developments in the situation.
